

EXPRESS & LOGISTICS

Mission statement

These guiding principles apply to all companies belonging to the GO! Group that appear on the market under the trademark of GO! Express & Logistics Deutschland GmbH. We see the compliance and implementation of these guiding principles as the basis of our work together and we actively practice them. We thereby create a vital basis, which, by being integrated in our daily work, significantly contributes to the overall success of the Group.

Our mission

Logistics for maximum demands

With more than 100 stations in Europe and partners across the world, we are the largest independent express and courier service provider in Germany. We have an infrastructure that stands up to all challenges. At any time – local, regional, national and international.

Our drive

We deliver a leading edge

The fulfilment of high demands gives our customers clear benefits. The GO! network therefore does not stand still for a second and runs at full speed even at night – 365 days a year: in a personal, fast and reliable manner, so that our customers are already a step ahead tomorrow.

Our claim

We create solutions

As a flexible and reliable partner with a high quality awareness, we always find the best solution for and with our customers. We are transparent and offer continuity and capability at the highest level – today and tomorrow.

Our culture

We belong together

Our community is the root and the future of our success. We fulfil our mission with commitment and passion. We act honestly in a considerate and responsible manner. We can rely on each other.

Our network

We bring partners together

The foundations of our mutual business success and the conditions for steady growth and innovation are based in our strong network. We work closely together and, when making our decisions, we bear in mind the consequences for our couriers, colleagues, business partners and the entire system. We are aware of our responsibility.
